GROUND HOG TRADITION

Upeld When Little Weather Prophet Saw His Shadow

We heard a gentleman telling a story the other day about what he had heard his uncle say many years ago about this ground hog business.

The old gentleman said he knew where there was a den of ground hogs in Fleming county, so he went there the traditional day of the little animal, before sunrise, and watched for proceedings.

He hadn't waited long until out came the hog, turned his back to the East and waited for the rising of old Sol. As soon as the sun came up and his shadow was cast before him, he hid himself into his den.

Now if the old gentleman was as truthful and honest as we know the nephew, who is himself now an old man, to be, the ground hog story is no longer a myth, but a certainty.

CAUSE FOR ALARM

Loss of Appetite or Distress After Eating a Symptom That Should Not be Disregarded

Appetite is just a natural desire for food. Loss of appetite or stomach distress after eating indicate indigestion or dyspepsia. Over eating is a habit very dangerous to a person's good general health.

It is not what you eat but what you digest and assimilate that does you good. Some of the strongest, healthiest, and healthiest persons are moderate eaters.

There is nothing that will cause more trouble than a disordered stomach, and many people daily contract serious maladies simply through disregard or abuse of the stomach.

I urge all in Maysville who suffer from any stomach trouble, derangement, indigestion, or dyspepsia, whether acute or chronic, to try Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets, with the distinct understanding that I will refund their money without question or formality, if after reasonable use of this medicine, they are not perfectly satisfied with the results. I recommend them to my customers every day and have yet to hear of any one who has not been benefited by them. I honestly believe them to be with equal force the digestive organs, to regulate the bowels and thus to promote perfect nutrition, and eradicate all unhealthy symptoms.

I urge you to try a 25-cent box of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets, which gives 15 days' treatment. At the end of that time, your money will be returned to you if you are not satisfied. Of course, in chronic cases length of treatment varies. For such cases I have two larger sizes, which sell for 50c and $1. Remember, you can obtain Rexall Remedies in this community only at my store—The Rexall Store, Sutton Street.

CARPENTER.

Elder Vera Carpenter and wife, at Bayamon, Porto Rico, are entertaining a new daughter at their home—Mary Catherine, arrived on January 24th.

Deafness Cannot be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a running sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are cured by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circular free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, The Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

SHE POPS QUESTION

A True Love Story That Ought to Convince Novel Readers There is Always Something New Under the Sun, in Love Affairs.

Chicago.—Jaded novel readers who are convinced there is nothing new under the sun in love stories, who believe, in fact, that romance has done nothing in the world in the last 150 years but run 'round and 'round in the same old circle, ought to make a call at 3334 Indiana avenue and shake the hands of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Schaffer.

The Schaffers are the authors, also the actors, of this love story. Their romance is new and up to date.

The first chapter discloses Roma Parker, seventeen and pretty, "clerk" in a Chicago department store. This was two years ago. Enter Albert Schaffer, a few years older, good looking, well dressed, earning $20 a week, and convinced he could conquer the world.

Albert looked at Roma and decided on the spot that she should be his. Roma observed Albert and concluded he was her "ideal." Result: Invitation to dinner from Albert to Roma.

Under the stimulus of a good dinner Albert told Roma many things, all figments of fancy. He said he was an orphan, sole heir to $25,000, and a member of two or three "exclusive clubs." Roma was impressed, she proposed, Roma accepted—end of chapter one.

The marriage was performed in Detroit.

After the marriage ceremony Schaffer's imagination suddenly cooled. Also, consulting his pocketbook, he discovered his money was nearly all gone. With fancy dead, conscience awoke. When the new Mrs. Schaffer began to be insistent about the honeymoon at Niagara Falls Albert suddenly weakened and "told all."

Was Roma angry? It took her about ten seconds to call that honeymoon

He Proposed, Roma Accepted.

off. It took her somewhat longer to tell Albert what she thought of him—about three hours.

A year elapsed. The next chapter discloses a divorce court. Enter Roma with lawyers; enter Albert with ditto. Roma on the witness stand "tells all."

"Decree granted," says the court, "no alimony asked, none allowed." Exit all. Slow music. Nobody happy.

Roma Schaffer, one year older and correspondingly improved in personal pulchritude, came downtown one afternoon to do some shopping. Among other things, she wanted a small piece of jewelry, and by the sheerest accident, strolling along Michigan boulevard, she saw "the very thing" in the window of a neat little jewelry store. She went into this store. A young man at the far end of the room came around the glass cases to wait on her. Their eyes met.

"Al," said Roma at last, "I think we're both a couple of (sniff, sniff) fools. I think we were right in the first place. I think we ought to have (boo hoo) stayed married. Don't you think we'd ought to have stayed (boo hoo) married, Al?"

"You bet I do," retorted Al. "And what we are going to do right now is get married again. And it isn't all fourhous with me this time, either. I own this place."

"Al," said Roma, after certain preliminaries, "I came here to get a piece of jewelry."

"Sure," replied Al. "I'd forgotten, but I think I know exactly what you want. How would this handsome solitaire do? And remember, we guarantee all our goods."

Albert and Roma were remarried the next day in Milwaukee.

GETTING READY FOR THE BIG SHOW.

The Mule is Monarch

Richmond Climax.

Do you know that the American mule is about the best money maker for the farmer that boards on his place? Of all our domestic animals, he commands the highest market price.

The average value of a hog, big or little, is $6.55. The average for a sheep is $3.50; for a beef, $17.39; for a milch cow, $32.36; for a sheep, $3.43; for a horse, $8.64. But a long-eared, rat-tail, American mule, gaunt and ungainly though he be, $107.84 is his price, big and little, up and down the land. A team of mules weighing 2,500 to 2,800 pounds is worth $500 hitched to any wagon. Compared with the horse, the mule is easier to raise and it has the powerful nine lives of the cat.

Swap your mule and you have a right to ask in exchange 30 sheep, 17 pigs, 6 steers or 3 cows. There is money in mules, but only about one farmer in fifty is acting upon this hunch.

RURAL MAILS

Government Requires Patrons to Remove Snow and Other Obstacles

Says the Fourth Assistant Postmaster General: "In these days of snow and sleet the rural mail carriers have a hard time and the Government expects the patrons to do their part. All obstructions are to be removed necessary to facilitate the service. Anything which hinders convenient access to the mail box is an obstruction. After a fall of three or four inches more of snow the Government expects the patrons to immediately clear a roadway to and from the mail boxes before the time for service."

$29,000,000

Standard Oil Company of Indiana Has Melon to Cut

Preparations are being made whereby the Standard Oil Company of Indiana will next month slice a melon of $29,000,000 in stock. The annual meeting will be held on March 7th at Whiting, Ind., and stockholders will be asked to increase the company's capital, which is at present $1,000,000.

The additional $29,000,000 will then be turned over to the stockholders as a stock dividend of 2,900 per cent. Shares are now quoted at $4,000 bid, $4,500 asked. It is the Standard Oil Company of Indiana which in 1907 was fined $29,024,000 by Judge Landis.

GETS DAMAGES

Woman Struck By Bundle of Newspapers at Depot

A verdict of $1,500 damages was returned by Judge Woodmansee's Court in Hamilton county, Monday, in the suit of Mary A. Woodworth against the Cincinnati, Georgetown & Portsmouth Railroad Co.

The action was for $10,000 damages for personal injuries.

On November 24th, 1909, Mrs. Woodworth was standing on the platform of the Fruit Hill Station waiting for a car, when another car passed, and the conductor of this car threw off a package of newspapers, weighing about 10 pounds, struck Mrs. Woodworth in the stomach and knocked her against the depot building, daily injuring her internally.
